

Business Health Partners

Field Services – Safety Division

Site Security Training

The overall objective of this training is to provide assessment, suggestions and solutions to your site security needs.

- Apply the requirements of a site security plan to a working environment.
- Examine the elements safety manual and procedure
- Determine the need for and the level of personnel protective equipment programs in a variety of situations. .
- Create a security plan, if one is non-existent.
- Formulate record keeping and site documentation requirements.